Overview

The Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) is consulting with users of the Australian Industry publication to understand how the outputs are used.

Australian Industry is released annually, within 11 months of the end of the financial year reference period. Australian Industry contains annual estimates of key economic and financial performance of industries in Australia, including income, expenses, profit and capital expenditure.

Why your views matter

The ABS will use the outcomes of this consultation to inform changes to future releases of the Australian Industry publication. Changes may include content, format or release schedule, and may be implemented from the 2023–24 release or beyond.
